Dorseting-Street, January 2, 1802.

A DISPATCH from the Resident of the Honorable East India Company at Amboyna, dated 6th July 1801, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Court of Directors of the East India Company, and communicated to the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

I Do myself the Honor to congratulate your Lordship, in Council, on the important Event of the Surrender of Ternate to the British Arms, which was delivered over, by Capitulation, to Colonel Burr on the 21st Ultimo.

The Dutch Governor made a most resolute Resistance, having defended the Place with uncommon Firmness for Fifty-two Days, though, I am sorry to add, at the Expence of the poor Inhabitants, who perished, by Famine, from Ten to Twenty a Day, from our strong Blockade by Sea and Land.

During this excellent Disposition of our Military and Marine Forces, the latter under the Command of that gallant Officer Captain Hages, the annual Supplies for the Enemy were intercepted through his Vigilance, which certainly contributed, in a high Degree, to the ultimate Success of the Enterprise. The Value of the captured Property taken by the Squadron amounts to a Lack and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The Difficulties the Honorable Company's Forces by Sea and Land had to encounter on this arduous Service, and the Spirit and Intrepidity which they manifested during a Siege of nearly Two Months, do them infinite Credit, and have seldom or ever been exceeded in this Part of the Globe. The Accounts we have received of the Strength of Fort Orange, and its numerous detached Batteries, proved exceedingly erroneous, in so much that Colonel Burr declares the Place to be extremely strong by Nature, and most excellently improved by Art, with a powerful Garrison, and so well provided with Arms and Ammunition, as to throw Difficulties in the Way of our Force, which were as distressing as unexpected; they, however, persevered and kept their Ground with so much Bravery and Resolution as to compel the Enemy to surrender their different strong Holds, one after the other, until the principal Fort and Town were so completely blockaded both by Sea and Land, and so reduced by Famine, as to make them sue for Conditions, which, I understand, are very satisfactory.

I am happy to inform your Lordship, in Council, that, arduous as this Service was, and much as our Forces were exposed to the repeated Attacks of the Enemy, the Loss of Killed and Wounded of the Troops does not amount to above Nine or Ten; that of the Marine does not exceed Twelve Seamen.

Whitehall, December 28, 1801.

The King has been pleased to grant unto David Lindo Abarbanel, of Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman, His Royal Licence and Authority, that he may use the Surname of Abarbanel before that of Lindo, and henceforward write himself David Abarbanel Lindo:

And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

THE SEAL

ON THE BOXES.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS,
&c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 161. Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeits:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglish, No. 165. Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2<sup>d</sup>. B. H. Inglish is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLISH.

Whitehall, January 16, 1802.

Whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that, on the 11th Day of December last, between Five and Six o'Clock in the Evening, Mr. George John Hiscock, Deputy Searcher, and Mr. William Peddell, Coastwaiter, in the Service of the Customs at the Port of Portsmouth, were out upon Duty on South-Sea Common, they fell in with a large Gang of Smugglers, from some of whom they seized Nine Casks of Foreign Spirits; that about Half an Hour afterwards, as the said Officers were removing the said Casks of Spirits, and conveying them to some House in the Neighbourhood to be there deposited for Security, Seven of the said Smugglers came up to them, and in a resolute Manner demanded Restitution of the said Goods, which the Officers positively refused, and being armed each with a Pistol and Sword, they warned them the said Smugglers of the great Danger of the serious Consequences if they attempted to take the same forcibly away; but, disregarding this Caution, the said Smugglers, in a very desperate Manner, attacked the said Officers with large Pieces of Wood and Stones: Upon this the said Officers, having told the Smugglers that they were Officers of the Customs, fired their Pistols at them, and drew their Swords in order to defend themselves, but the said Seven Smugglers instantly closed upon the said Officers and overpowered them, wrenched their Pistols out of their Hands, and, after beating and dangerously wounding them in a dreadful Manner, leaving them nearly dead, rescued and carried off the said Casks of Spirits which they the said Officers had seized;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders who shall discover, his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended.

W Hereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that, on the 11th Day of December last, between Five and Six o'Clock in the Evening, Mr. George John Hiscock, Deputy Searcher, and Mr. William Peddell, Coastwaiter, in the Service of the Customs at the Port of Portsmouth, were out upon Duty on South-Sea Common, they fell in with a large Gang of Smugglers, from some of whom they seized Nine Casks of Foreign Spirits; that about Half an Hour afterwards, as the said Officers were removing the said Casks of Spirits, and conveying them to some House in the Neighbourhood to be there deposited for Security, Seven of the said Smugglers came up to them, and in a resolute Manner demanded Restitution of the said Goods, which the Officers positively refused, and being armed each with a Pistol and Sword, they warned them the said Smugglers of the great Danger of the serious Consequences if they attempted to take the same forcibly away; but, disregarding this Caution, the said Smugglers, in a very desperate Manner, attacked the said Officers with large Pieces of Wood and Stones: Upon this the said Officers, having told the Smugglers that they were Officers of the Customs, fired their Pistols at them, and drew their Swords in order to defend themselves, but the said Seven Smugglers instantly closed upon the said Officers and overpowered them, wrenched their Pistols out of their Hands, and, after beating and dangerously wounding them in a dreadful Manner, leaving them nearly dead, rescued and carried off the said Casks of Spirits which they the said Officers had seized;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders who shall discover, his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Montagu, commanding Officer of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Port Royal Harbour, the 19th of November 1801.

SIR,

ENCLOSED I have the Honor to transmit Two Letters from Francis J. Nott, Esq; Commander of the Curacoa, giving an Account of an Action between His Majesty's Armed Tender Pickle and a Spanish Schooner.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c. &c.

ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Sloop Curacoa, Curacoa Harbour, October 21, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to enclose a Copy of a Letter received from Mr. Robert Hayer, Master's Mate of His Majesty's Sloop Curacoa, under my Command, and serving on board His Majesty's Armed Tender Pickle, attached to that Ship.

I beg Leave to inform you that the Pickle has been retitted and sailed upon a Cruise.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

FRANCIS JOHN NOTT.

Rear-Admiral Montagu.

His Majesty's Armed Tender Pickle, Curacoa Harbour, October 13, 1801.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that on the 25th ultimo, Eleven A. M. off of Ash (St. Domingo) bearing N. W. Distance Five or Six Miles, being on the Starboard Tack, a strange Sail was discovered under the Land bearing down upon us with an English Ensign flying.

When within Pistol-Shot of the Pickle, the Enemy hoisted Spanish Colours, and commenced an Action which continued with a brisk Fire from both Sides for an Hour and a Quarter, when they attempted to board, but without Effect; finding themselves foiled in this they hauled their Wind, and made Sail from us: We wore and stood after them, but, to my great Mortification, they were so much our Superior in Sailing, that, after a Chace of One Hour and a Half, I found it fruitless to continue it.

It is with extreme Regret that I am to inform you Lieutenant Greenfields was killed Forty Mi-utes after the Commencement of the Action, having received a Musket Ball through his Body.

Our Sails and Rigging have suffered a good Deal; and I am sorry to add that Mr. Pearce, Midshipman, with Seven Men and myself were wounded.

From the great Superiority of the Enemy's Force to ours, the Pickle only having Thirty-five Men, (including Officers and Boys, and of these Three were rendered unserviceable through Sickness,) I hope the Exertions used during the Action, as well as those made to come up with the Enemy, will meet your Approbation.

The Enemy was a large Schooner-rigged Vessel, mounting Two Twelve and Two Nine-Pounders, and manned with about Seventy Men; and I imagine must have been a French or Spanish Privateer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

ROBERT HAYER.

Whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that, on the 11th Day of December last, between Five and Six o'Clock in the Evening, Mr. George John Hiscock, Deputy Searcher, and Mr. William Piddell, Coastwaiter, in the Service of the Customs at the Port of Portsmouth, were out upon Duty on South-Sea Common, they fell in with a large Gang of Smugglers, from some of whom they seized Nine Casks of Foreign Spirits; that about Half an Hour afterwards, as the said Officers were removing the said Casks of Spirits, and conveying them to some House in the Neighbourhood to be there deposited for Security, Seven of the said Smugglers came up to them, and in a resolute Manner demanded Restitution of the said Goods, which the Officers positively refused, and being armed, each with a Pistol and Sword, they warned them the said Smugglers of the great Danger of the serious Consequences if they attempted to take the same forcibly away; but, disregarding this Caution, the said Smugglers, in a very desperate Manner, attacked the said Officers with large Pieces of Wood and Stones: Upon this the said Officers, having told the Smugglers that they were Officers of the Customs, fired their Pistols at them, and drew their Swords in order to defend themselves, but the said Seven Smugglers instantly closed upon the said Officers and overpowered them, wrenched their Pistols out of their Hands, and, after beating and dangerously wounding them in a dreadful Manner, leaving them nearly dead, rescued and carried off the said Casks of Spirits which they the said Officers had seized;

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglis, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2<sup>d</sup>. B. H. Inglis is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLIS.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Second Day of December last, prohibiting the Transportation into any Parts out of this Kingdom, of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire upon the Tenth Day of this instant February: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time during the Space of Two Months, to commence from the Tenth Day of this instant February, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry, or convey, or lade, or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained of His Majesty or His Privy Council: But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Ports and Settlements on the Coast of

Extract of a Letter from Henry William Bayntun, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Cumberland, and Senior Officer, for the Time being, of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Port Royal, the 11th of October 1801.

A Brilliant little Exploit was performed the other Day by Two Boats of the Lark: A Copy of Lieutenant Johnstone's (the acting Captain) Letter on that Occasion I think right to transmit; at the same Time to remark, that Lieutenant Pasley has, in many Instances, performed the like.

Lark, Port Antonio, 17th September 1801.
MY LORD,

I Arrived in this Port Yesterday Evening, having quitted my Station on Tuesday last for the Purpose of landing some Prisoners of War which we took in a Spanish Privateer Schooner on the Night of the 13th last: We had chased her the Whole of the Afternoon, close in with the Cuba Shore, till Dark, when she took Shelter within the Portillo Reefs: I immediately sent Lieutenant Pasley with the Yawl and Cutter, Mr. McCloud, Midshipman, and Sixteen Men in each.

About Half past Ten Mr. Pasley found her at Anchor in the Place he expected; she was waiting the Attack in Readiness, which she commenced by a Discharge from One Nine and Two Four Pounders, which severely wounded several in each Boat.

Notwithstanding, they boarded, and after a short but severe Contest, they carried her. She proved the Esperance, from St. Jago, which Port she left on the 18th August, and since that Time had taken the Eliza Sloop and Betsy Brig belonging to Kingston. She was commanded by Joseph Callie; and from the best Accounts I have been able to collect since, she had on board, when the Action commenced, Forty-five Men, Twenty-one of whom were killed, and Six wounded. The Captain and all the Officers were amongst the former.

On our Part we have to lament the Loss of John Jones, Coxswain of the Cutter, who was killed early in the Action, Mr. McCloud and Twelve Seamen wounded.

I have been able to land the Prisoners under the Security of the Garrison, having promised to take them again on board on my Way to Port Royal. And I am much indebted to the Commanding Officer, Major Cod, of the 60th, who has had the Goodness to receive, under the Care of their Surgeon, Mr. McCloud and Four others, who are thought to be the most dangerously wounded: I shall sail immediately, and lose not a Moment to regain my Station.

I am, my Lord, &c.

(Signed) J. JOHNSTONE.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 6, 1802.

Notice is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on Wednesday the 10th Instant.

Whitehall, January 30, 1802.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday Night the 13th Instant, Four Men, with Guns and Dogs, were found killing the Rabbits in a Warren belonging to Mr. Thomas Crewc Dod, of Edge Whitchurch, in the County of Chester, One of which was seized by the Servants of Mr. Dod; and in bringing the said Person to the House Three other Men came up with violent Threats and Imprecations, and presenting their Guns to the Servants' Breasts, swore they would kill them on the Spot if they did not instantly release the Man, and they struck one of the Servants violently on the Breast, which compelled them to let go the Man they had secured; upon this they were pursued by the others, and fired at by one of the Party, by which Two of Mr. Dod's Servants were wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually fired such Gun,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the Magistrates; and TWENTY POUNDS by Mr. Thomas Crewc Dod, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, February 2, 1802.

WHereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that, early in the Morning of the 28th of December last, as James Skidmore and Edward Cox Tooby, Officers of Excise, at Norwich, assisted by Two private Soldiers belonging to the 3d Regiment of Dragoon Guards, were conveying to that City Six Horses and Five Carts, with a large Quantity of smuggled Geneva and Tobacco, which they had seized from Henry Smith, on Catwston-Heath, Norfolk, they were violently assaulted, soon after passing through the Village of Orsford, by upwards of Thirty Men unknown, armed with Blunderbusses, Guns, Pistols, and other offensive Weapons, who immediately fired upon them, beat and much bruised one of the Officers, wounded a Soldier, and rescued Two Horses and Carts, and Part of the Geneva.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Accomplice or other Person who shall discover, his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall discover any one or more of the Offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid, to be paid by their Secretary upon the Conviction.

By Order of the Board.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Rainier, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the East Indies, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Madras-Road, the 29th of September 1801.

S I R,

I Have at present nothing very particular to communicate to you, for their Lordships' Information, beyond what may be collected from the Disposition-List of His Majesty's Squadron under my Command, herewith enclosed, except the Capture of the French National Frigate Chiffonne, in Mahé-Road, at the Seychelles, on the 19th Ultimo, Force as per Margin *, by His Majesty's Ship La Sybille, Captain Charles Adam, after a short but gallant Action, in which a well-constructed Battery of the Frigate's Forecastle-Guns, furnished with a Furnace for heating Red-Hot Shot, co-operated in her Defence. This Circumstance, added to the Advantage the French Frigate derived from her Position, being at Anchor, while His Majesty's Ship had to steer for her Opponent, at the greatest Hazard, through a winding and intricate Channel, formed by various dangerous Shoals, with no other Guide than as the Water was seen to discolour on them by a Man at the Mast-Head, placed there for that Purpose, may be fairly estimated to overbalance the trifling Difference in the Calibre of the Metal of the Enemy's Ship, and justly entitle Captain Adam, his Officers, and Crew to the distinguished Honor of having taken a Ship of equal Force.

The Chiffonne was commanded by a Monsieur Guieysse, sailed from Nantes 14th April last, is a fine new Ship, had never been at Sea before, completely armed and equipped; her Errand to the Seychelles was to land Thirty-two Persons who had been suspected of being concerned in an Attempt on the Life of the First Consul of the French Republic. As His Majesty's Ship Suffolk will proceed shortly with Convoy to Spithead, I shall defer to that Opportunity the forwarding a Copy of Captain Adam's Letter on the Occasion, with other Particulars; but it may be proper to acquaint you that, on the 15th of May, near the Coast of Brazil, the Chiffonne took a Portuguese Schooner; and Three Days after a Frigate of that Nation, named L'Hirondelle, armée en flute, with Twenty-four Carronades, Twenty-four-Pounders, after a short Action, but after throwing her Guns overboard, and taking out her Stores, suffered her to go about her Business, the Captain and Officers giving their Parole for themselves and Crew. On the 16th of June, off the Cape, she captured the English Ship Bellona, laden with a very valuable Cargo, from Calcutta bound to England, who got safe into the Mauritius.

I have only to add that I have given Orders for the Purchase of the Chiffonne for His Majesty's * Main Deck.—28 Twelve-Pounders.

Quarter Deck.—6 Eight-Pounders; 4 Thirty-six-Pound Carronades.

Forecastle.—4 Eight-Pounders; with 250 Men.

Service, and shall place her on the Establishment of a Thirty-six Gun Frigate, agreeably to her Dimensions, and that of her Masts and Yards.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

PETER RAINIER.

SIR,

THE Private Ship of War the Chance, belonging to Mr. Hogan, of this Place, and commanded by Mr. William White, having been on a Cruise on the Coast of Peru, returned on the 11th Instant. The Commander of the Chance addressed a Letter to me containing an Account of his Proceedings during his Cruise. He appears to have uniformly acted with great Propriety; but his Conduct, and that of his Officers and Men, was, on Two Occasions, so highly creditable to them that I send his Account of these Occurrences for their Lordships' Information.

I am, &c.

ROGER CURTIS.

Extracts of a Letter from Mr. William White, Commander of the Chance Private Ship of War, fitted out at the Cape of Good Hope, to Vice-Admiral Sir Roger Curtis, Bart.

"AT Four P. M. on the 19th of August, the Island St. Laurence bearing N. E. Two Leagues, saw a large Ship bearing down towards us; at Nine brought her to close Action, and engaged her within half Pistol-Shot for an Hour and a Half, but finding her Metal much heavier than ours, and full of Men, boarded her on the Starboard Quarter, lashing the Chance's Bowspirit to her Mizzen-Mast, and after a desperate Resistance of Three Quarters of an Hour, beat them off the Upper Deck, but they still defended from the Cabin and Lower Deck with long Pikes in a most gallant Manner, till they had Twenty-five Men killed and Twenty-eight wounded, of whom the Captain was one; getting final Possession, she was so close to the Island that with much Difficulty we got her off Shore, all her Braces and Rigging being cut to Pieces by our Grape Shot. She proved to be the new Spanish Ship Amiable Maria, of about Six Hundred Tons, mounting Fourteen Guns, Eighteen, Twelve, and Nine-Pounders, Brads, and carrying One Hundred and Twenty Men, from Conception bound to Lima, laden with Corn, Wine, Bale Goods, &c. On this Occasion I am much concerned to state Mr. Bennett, a very valuable and brave Officer, was so dangerously wounded that he died Three Days after the Action; the Second and Fourth Mates, Marine Officer, and Two Seamen badly wounded by Pikes, but since recovered. On the 20th, both Ships being much disabled, and having more Prisoners than Crew, I stood close in and sent Eighty-six on Shore in the large Ship's Launch to Lima; we afterwards learned that Seventeen of the Wounded had died."

"At Four A. M. on the 24th September, standing in to cut out from the Roads of Puna, in Guayaquil Bay, a Ship that I had Information of, mounting Twenty-two Guns, fell in with a large Spanish Brig with a Broad Pendant at Main-Top-Mast-Head; at Five she commenced her Fire on us, but she being at a Distance to windward, and desirous to bring her close to Action, we received Three Broadshots before a Shot was returned; at Half-past Five being Yard-Arm and Yard-Arm, commenced our Fire with great Effect, and after a very severe Action of Two Hours and Three Quarters, during the latter Part she made every Effort to get away, I had the Honor to see the Spanish Flag struck to the Chance; she proved to be the Spanish Man of War Brig Limeno, mounting Eighteen long Six-Pound Guns, commanded by Commodore Don Philip de Martinez, the Senior Officer of the Spanish Marine on that Coast, and manned with One Hundred and Forty Men, sent from Guayaquil, for the express Purpose of taking the Chance, and then to proceed to the Northward to take Three English Whalers laying in one of their Ports; she had Fourteen Men killed and Seven wounded; the Captain mortally wounded, who died Two Days after the Action; the Chance had Two Men killed and one wounded, and had only Fifty Men at the Commencement of the Action, mounting Sixteen Guns Twelve and Six-Pounders."

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 15th Day of December last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, as Two Boats, manned with the Crews of the Tartar and Lively Cutters, in the Service of the Customs, were out upon Duty in the Downs, and proceeding along Shore they discovered a Lugger, to which they gave Chase, and on their nearing her, the People on board the Lugger ordered the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats to keep off, and threatened to fire into them and sink and destroy them, and immediately fired one Musket; That notwithstanding this Resistance the Crews of the Tartar's and Lively's Boat succeeded in boarding the said Lugger, and drove the Crew, consisting of Twenty-two Men, overboard, in effecting which, one of the Crew of the Tartar was wounded and another thrown overboard; that the said Lugger got aground on the Beach, near the Town of Deal, and she proved to be the Ned of Deal, laden with a large Quantity of smuggled Goods, a great Part of which they seized and secured, and sent on board the Tartar Cutter; that in about an Hour afterwards, as the Crews of the said Tartar's and Lively's Boats were endeavouring to heave the said Lugger off they were attacked by a great Number of Smugglers who came down upon the Beach armed with Muskets, within Half Pistol-Shot of them, and kept up a constant Fire of Musketry, which the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats returned for some Time, when finding it impossible to get the Lugger off and being overpowered by superior Numbers, they quitted her, the Smugglers on the Beach still continuing to fire upon them until they got out of Sight; that in the Course of this Attack Two of the Crew of the Lively's Boat were wounded, one of them dangerously; that some Time after this the Smugglers rescued and carried off the said Lugger, and the same has not since been heard of;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Whitchall, March 2, 1802.

W Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 17th Day of December last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, as Mr. James Ireland,

Mate of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of the Customs, stationed at the Port of Dover, was upon Duty in the Six-Oared Boat, off Walmer, together with some of the Crew of the said Cutter, they fell in with a Smuggling Luggier, and followed her to the Tonnage of Deal, where she anchored, and the Officer then boarded her:—That as the said Officer and his Men were in the act of getting the said Luggier off, a great Number of Boats full of Men, to the Amount of One Hundred and Fifty or more, were launched from the Shore of Deal, and came along side of the said Smuggling Luggier, and, with threatening Oaths, struck the said Officer and his Boat's Crew several Times, and at last compelled them to leave the said Luggier through Fear of being killed by the Smugglers, one of whom took a Pistol out of one of the Hands of the Tartar's Boatmen, and presented it to him, but it flashed in the Pan and missed Fire;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended.

ON THE BOXES.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS,
&c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglis, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. Inglis is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLIS.

IV Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 15th Day of December last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, as Two Boats, manned with the Crews of the Tartar and Lively Cutters, in the Service of the Customs, were out upon Duty in the Downs, and proceeding along Shore they discovered a Luggie, to which they gave Chace, and on their nearing her, the People on board the Lugger ordered the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats to keep off, and threatened to fire into them and sink and destroy them, and immediately fired one Musket; That notwithstanding this Resistance the Crews of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats succeeded in boarding the said Lugger, and drove the Crew, consisting of Twenty-two Men, overboard, in effecting which, one of the Crew of the Tartar was wounded and another thrown overboard; that the said Lugger got aground on the Beach, near the Town of Deal, and she proved to be the Ned of Deal, laden with a large Quantity of Smuggled Goods, a great Part of which they seized and secured, and sent on board the Tartar Cutter; that in about an Hour afterwards as the Crews of the said Tartar's and Lively's Boats were endeavouring to heave the said Lugger off they were attacked by a great Number of Smugglers who came down upon the Beach armed with Musket, within Half Pistol-Shot of them, and kept up a constant Fire of Musketry, which the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats returned for some Time, when finding it impossible to get the Lugger off and being overpowered by superior Numbers, they quitted her, the Smugglers on the Beach still continuing to fire upon them until they got out of Sight; that in the Course of this Attack Two of the Crew of the Lively's Boat were wounded, one of them dangerously; that some Time after this the Smugglers rescued and carried off the said Lugger, and the same has not since been heard of;

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 17th Day of December last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, as Mr. James Ireland, Mate of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of the Customs, stationed at the Port of Dover, was upon Duty in the Six-Oared Boat, off Walmer, together with some of the Crew of the said Cutter, they fell in with a Smuggling Lugger, and followed her to the Town of Deal, where she anchored, and the Officer then boarded her:—That as the said Officer and his Men were in the act of getting the said Lugger off, a great Number of Boats full of Men, to the Amount of One Hundred and Fifty or more, were launched from the Shore of Deal, and came along side of the said Smuggling Lugger, and, with threatening Outcries, struck the said Officer and his Boat's Crew several Times, and at last compelled them to leave the said Lugger through Fear of being killed by the Smugglers, one of whom took a Pistol out of one of the Hands of the Tartar's Boatmen, and presented it to him, but it flashed in the Pan and missed Fire;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 15th Day of December last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, as Two Boats, manned with the Crews of the Tartar and Lively Cutters, in the Service of the Customs, were out upon Duty in the Downs, and proceeding along Shore they discovered a Lugger, to which they gave Chace, and on their nearing her, the People on board the Lugger ordered the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats to keep off, and threatened to fire into them and sink and destroy them, and immediately fired one Musket; That notwithstanding this Resistance the Crews of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats succeeded in boarding the said Lugger, and drove the Crew, consisting of Twenty-two Men, overboard, in effecting which, one of the Crew of the Tartar was wounded and another thrown overboard; that the said Lugger got aground on the Beach, near the Town of Deal, and she proved to be the Ned of Deal, laden with a large Quantity of smuggled Goods, a great Part of which they seized and secured, and sent on board the Tartar Cutter; that in about an Hour afterwards as the Crews of the said Tartar's and Lively's Boats were endeavouring to heave the said Lugger off they were attacked by a great Number of Smugglers who came down upon the Beach armed with Muskets, within Half Pistol-Shot of them, and kept up a constant Fire of Musketry, which the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats returned for some Time, when finding it impossible to get the Lugger off and being overpowered by superior Numbers, they quitted her, the Smugglers on the Beach still continuing to fire upon them until they got out of Sight; that in the Course of this Attack Two of the Crew of the Lively's Boat were wounded, one of them dangerously; that some Time after this the Smugglers rescued and carried off the said Lugger, and the same has not since been heard of;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders who shall discover hi. or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioner,
H. Hutson, pro Secretary.

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 17th Day of December last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, as Mr. James Ireland, Mate of the Tartar Cutter, in the Service of the Cust-zoins, stationed at the Port of Dover, was upon Duty in the Six-Oared Boat, off Walmer, together with some of the Crew of the said Cutter, they fell in with a Smuggling Lugger, and followed her to the Town of Deal, where she anchored, and the Officer then boarded her:—That as the said Officer and his Men were in the act of getting the said Lugger off, a great Number of Boats full of Men, to the Amount of One Hundred and Fifty or more, were launched from the Shore of Deal, and came along side of the said Smuggling Lugger, and, with threatening Oaths, struck the said Officer and his Boat's Crew several Times, and at last compelled them to leave the said Lugger through Fear of being killed by the Smugglers, one of whom took a Pistol out of one of the Hands of the Tartar's Boatmen, and presented it to him, but it flashed in the Pan and missed Fire;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

C. Broadley and Company.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS,
&c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN.

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeits:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. Inglish is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLISH.
